The First Christian Church, Portsmouth, O.

THE FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

This church was organized in 1833. The first church building stood on Chillicothe Street opposite Tracy Square. Later it was removed to Third and Gay streets, and still later gave way to the present "Church of the Cordial Welcome." Great credit for much of the good accomplished by this congregation, is due that splendid Christian gentleman, the late Dr. J. F. Davis, who much like Abraham of old "walked and talked with God."

PEACE TO HIS ASHES.

"His life was gentle, and the elements so mixed in him, that nature might stand up before all the world and say "This was a Man.'"
